

FCPS Public School Parents: What are your rights on the transgender issue?

Mary E. McAlister, Esq.
Senior Litigation Counsel
Liberty Counsel *

- Did the FCPS School Board have the legal authority to add “sexual orientation” and “gender identity” to the non-discrimination policy and the Students’ Rights and Responsibilities (SR&R) document?
- Do parents’ and students’ have a right to disagree?
- What can happen if you and your students choose not sign the SR&R?

Learn how you can legally object to the Fairfax Public School’s addition of “sexual orientation” and “gender identity” to the non-discrimination policy and Students’ Rights and Responsibility guidelines. These changes will affect every student, teacher, and all school staff when they are fully implemented.

Wednesday August 17th at 7:30 PM
St. Raymond of Penafort Catholic Church
8750 Pohick Road
Springfield, VA 22153

Liberty Counsel, with offices in Orlando, Lynchburg and Washington D.C., is a nonprofit law firm dedicated to advancing religious freedom, the sanctity of life, and the family. Liberty Counsel is presently representing a group of parents against FCPS on the issue of the Board's impermissible addition of sexual orientation and gender identity to its non-discrimination policy.*

For more information contact:

Mychele Brickner, former Fairfax County School Board Member at-large: mbrickner@mbrickner.com

Andrea Lafferty, President, Traditional Values Coalition: alafferty@traditionalvalues.org